

The Green Infrastructure Engine

Contact List

The Green Infrastructure Engine is a new white paper developed by a coalition of statewide Connecticut environmental groups. The paper discusses “green” investment opportunities in the areas of energy efficiency, clean energy, transportation, agriculture, historic preservation, Long Island Sound restoration, and natural resource protection.

Each section was written by representatives from various groups. For further information about each subject area, contact the individuals below:

Energy Efficiency

- Jessie Stratton, Environment Northeast: (860) 246-7121
- Charles Rothenberger, Connecticut Fund for the Environment: (860) 787-0646
- Roger Smith, Clean Water Action: (860) 232-6232
- Christopher Phelps, Environment Connecticut: (860) 231-8842

Go Solar Connecticut

- Christopher Phelps, Environment Connecticut: (860) 231-8842
- Roger Smith, Clean Water Action: (860) 232-6232

Transit System Development

- Karen Burnaska, Connecticut Fund for the Environment: (203) 261-9243

Agriculture as Green Infrastructure

- Jiff Martin, Working Lands Alliance: (860) 683-4230
- Terry Jones, Jones Family Farms: (203) 996-8010

Face of Connecticut

- Helen Higgins, CT Trust for Historic Preservation: (203) 562-6312
- Jiff Martin, Working Lands Alliance: (860) 683-4230
- David Sutherland, The Nature Conservancy: (860) 344-0716

Long Island Sound Restoration

- Leah Schmalz, Save the Sound/CFE: (203) 787-0646

Investing in our Natural Resources

- Sandy Breslin, Audubon Connecticut: (203) 264-5098
- David Sutherland, The Nature Conservancy: (860) 344-0716
- Eric Hammerling, Connecticut Forest & Park Association: (860) 346-2372